BREED NOTES

BREED: TONKINESE

4/14/97 – Honey Mink (2604-2605) is a valid color. Very few people are working with this color, but it is registerable and showable as AOV (per Bonnie Smith 6/9/99).

More on the ....

Honey Mink (2604-2605): has its own registration numbers but it shown as an AOV. It is a color that used to be shown in Championship where it obtained unique registration numbers. It was moved back to being shown as an AOV due to low numbers but kept its registration numbers. All other colors such as Honey Point, Honey Solid (Points and Solids were not shown when Honey Minks where in Championship), all Fawns, all Reds, etc are both registered as AOVs and shown as AOVs. Honey Mink is the only unique color shown as an AOV that has its own registration numbers.

Some color name mapping to other registrations:

Natural = seal & sable

Champagne = chocolate

Blue = blue

Platinum = lilac

Honey = cinnamon
