

BRITISH SHORTHAIR

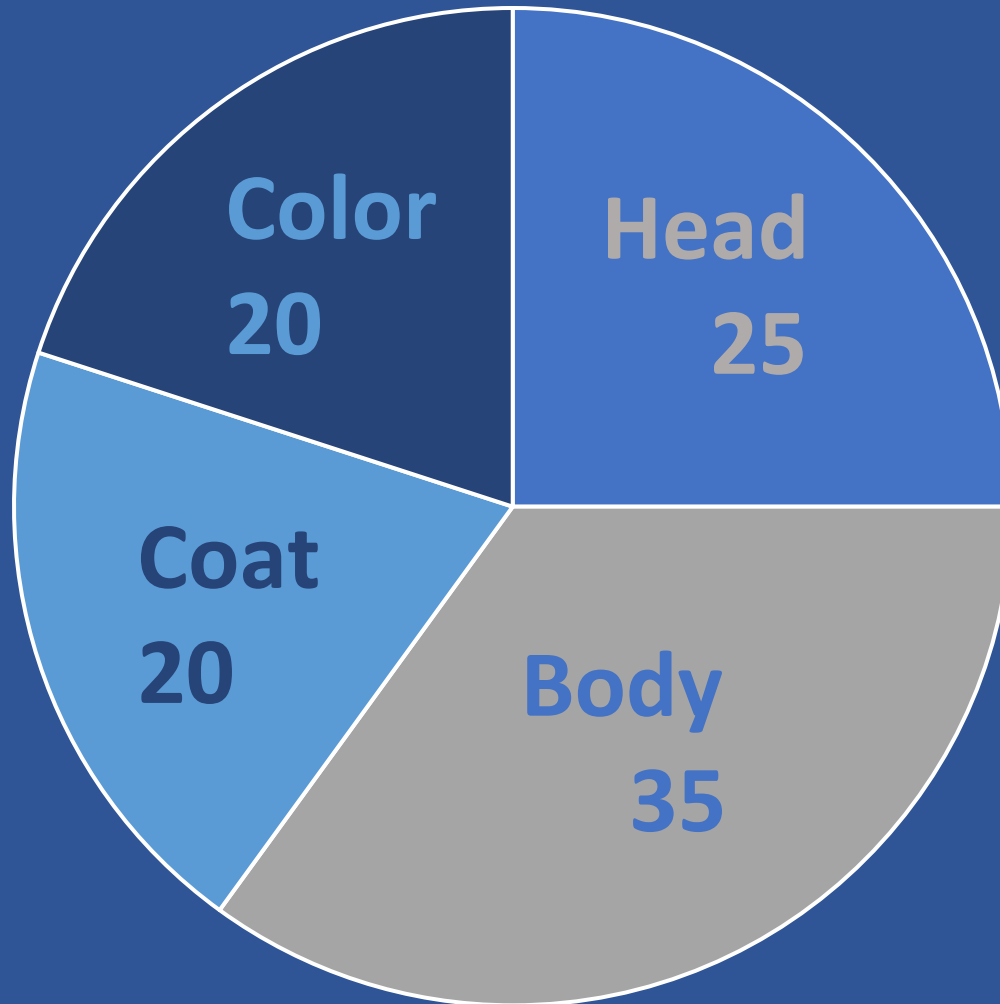

THE CAT
FANCIERS'
ASSOCIATION

The British Shorthair

- Sturdy, well built, medium- large, POWERFUL, working cat.
- Slow to reach full maturity and development
- Calm, quiet, easily trained, adaptable

Total Point Score – 100 Points

Head

- Large round head set on a short thick neck
- Round, level, well spaced eyes in array of colors to match their coat color.
- Forehead rounded with a slight flat plain on top.

Head

- Medium broad-based ears fitting into skull roundness
- Strong well-developed muzzle and chin. Definite stop beyond round well-developed whisker pads.
- In profile there is a gentle dip.

Body

- Compact, broad chested
- Well muscled, powerful
- Strong short - medium legs, large round feet

Coat

- Short, dense , resilient coat.
- Not double coated or woolly

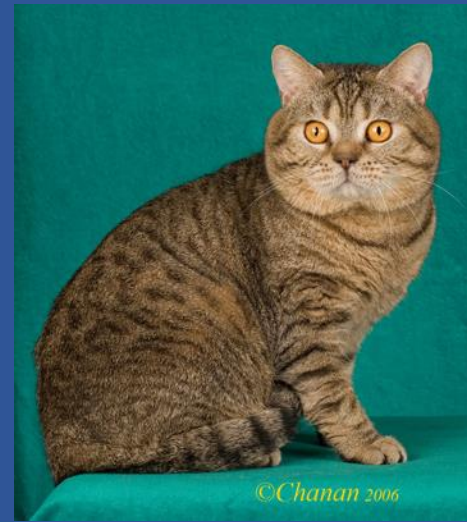

Solid

- Black
- Blue
- Cream
- Red
- White
- *Chocolate **
- *Lilac **

* New colors as of May 1, 2023

Color

Tabby

(Spotted, Mackerel, & Classic)

- Blue Tabby
- Brown Tabby
- Cream Tabby
- Red Tabby
- Silver Tabby
- Blue Patched Tabby
- Brown Patched Tabby
- Silver Patched Tabby

Color

Parti-Color & Bi-Color

- Blue-Cream
- Tortoiseshell
- Calico
- Dilute Calico
- Solid & White
- Tabby & White
- Patched Tabby & White

OBSHC

- Smoke
- Shaded Silver
- Shaded Golden
- Chinchilla Silver
- Chinchilla Golden
- Shell Cameo

British Shorthairs are relatively quiet, calm cats with an easygoing nature; affectionate but not demanding; easily trained; very adaptable and not usually fond of being carried. British Shorthairs are not known for their grace and can tend to be clumsy.